

I am opposed to the usage of the BPL function for internet services if it would cause interference with the operation of the high frequency amateur radio bands or disrupt the pleasure of being an amateur radio operator in any other way as well.